ACM Capital Region Celebration of Women in Computing

CAPWIC 2027

April 9-10

<https://capwic.org>

Join us for the CAPWIC 2027 at James Madison University in Harrisonburg, VA.

CAPWIC provides a venue for future
computing professionals to gain confidence in their skills, network with each other, and learn from accomplished technical women.
Learn from others in the industry and in academia through various panels, presentations and workshops.

Registration and submissions open in late 2026..
